WOULD OWN ALL.

E. H. Harriman, Out West, Expresses His Ambition.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 17.—"All the railroads in the country should be mine if I could get control of them," said Edward H. Harriman, a reporter for the State Journal, on his arrival at Sparks, Nevada, the division terminal, yesterday, in the course of an interview during which he discussed his work and ambitions.

"I have been quoted seriously for the expression which I made formerly to the effect that I would manage the railroads for the federal government, and that I would turn my holdings over to the United States for a fair compensation and act as the governments commissioner. But I was misunderstood, for the time has not come for federal ownership. Personally, with all the lines in my possession I would be better suited."

Woodville Is Soaked.
Woodville, Aug. 17.—(Special)—Woodville was blessed with a good rain this afternoon that wonderfully refreshed crops and vegetation. Crops were not suffering, but the rain was welcome nevertheless. Reports from over the county are that the shower was general, but Woodville had a heavy rain.

The fine horse of Mr. Walter Kunkendall, rural route carrier on route No. 2, had its leg broken some time last night. The horse was all right when locked in the stable and was not found until this morning. It is presumed the horse caught its leg in the stall.

Such Impudence!

Entertaining in an Insane Asylum.

Did you ever entertain an audience at an insane asylum? Those who have usually are able to tell experiences quite out of the ordinary. The Litchfield trio have had several amusing experiences at such places. In one case Mr. Litchfield spoke to a patient at the asylum—"nice day; rather muddy underfoot, but nice overhead."

"Yes," answered the patient, "but nobody gets up there."

In the course of the entertainment Mrs. Litchfield gives on the violin an imitation of the church organ. That it was well done was made evident, for as she finished there came through the stillness in clear, ministerial tones the voice of an inmate of the asylum: "Now let the collection be taken up."—The Lyceumite and Talent.

"If you don't marry me," said the ardent youth, "I will shoot you."

"Fire away," said the girl, "I'd rather be shot than to starve to death, anyhow." This so disconcerted the youth that his purpose failed.—Philadelphia Ledger.

If you can not find God in folks on the street you will not find him on the golden streets.

Circuit Court.

H. E. Hall & company, commission merchants, entered suit in circuit court against the Paducah Ice company for $339.50 damages, alleging that the ice company permitted a lot of cabbage in cold storage to spoil. The plaintiffs aver that they paid $25 the month for cold storage privileges, the contract being that the plant should be kept at a low temperature.

Suit for $5,000 damages against the N. C. & St. L. Railroad company was filed in circuit court by Mrs. Learney Schraeder, who says she was struck by an engine and permanently injured. Engineer George Watson is made defendant.

Suit for $318.36 was entered in the circuit court by the Bartenders' Union against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, which was on the bond of W. Sherman Mills treasurer of the local, who left suddenly with that amount unaccounted for. A former suit made by the American Federation of Labor party is substituted for the original.

SOCIAL UNREST

INTERESTING LECTURE BY DR. FINESCHRIEBER.

Describes It As Due To Contest By Forces of Progress and Conservatism.

Social unrest is a manifestation of the world long struggle between progress and conservatism, which correspond to the centrifugal and centripetal forces in physics, the two forces that make the world go around. This was the conclusion of Dr. William Fineschreiber, who lectured on that subject to a large and representative audience at the public library yesterday afternoon. The speaker took the optimistic view, said this unrest denotes a growing degree of self-consciousness, a sense of participation in creation itself, and a spirit of progress. He called it humanity in the adolescent stage of development. Declining to limit his subject to one phase, Dr. Fineschreiber indicated briefly the social ferment in economics, politics, religion and morals.

Nothing Doing.

"What's this?" asked the man acquitted of a charge of murder, as his lawyer handed him a paper.

"That's my bill for services," explained the lawyer.

"Get out!" responded the acquitted. "You proved I was insane, didn't you?"

"Well, you can't do business with a lunatic."—Philadelphia Ledger.
